WARRIOR DRE M

TODAY

As Idabel Warriors, we all feel the silent demand to be continually At Our Best. Thriving in every field, students push themselves to the limit, therefore, making us what we are today.

Between the front and back covers of our yearbook, this year's Tushka will capture most of the memories never to be experienced again. The spirit and the attitudes of the students of IHS will be a thing of the past before you realize how fast time really flies. Appreciation of everything around you always makes the memory worthwhile.

— Jackie McKeever —

Jess and Jia are puzzled about something.

Don't mess with me or I'll get you!

"Angie, put those shoes back on!"

Michael and Sherri — playing the field.

Two bits, four bits, six bits, Hey. Martha and Sherri say "Go all the way."

The FCA car makes its way down the Homecoming parade route.

Guess who's on this page 6 times . . .

Clark Lorraine and Sherri Griffin take a moment to pose at the fair.

Sherri Griffin and Monica Coffman are working hard.

Greg Lee is seen with his famous smile.

Jimmy Rice and Vanessa Lowe seem to have other things on their minds besides decorating the Student Council car.

Clockwise:

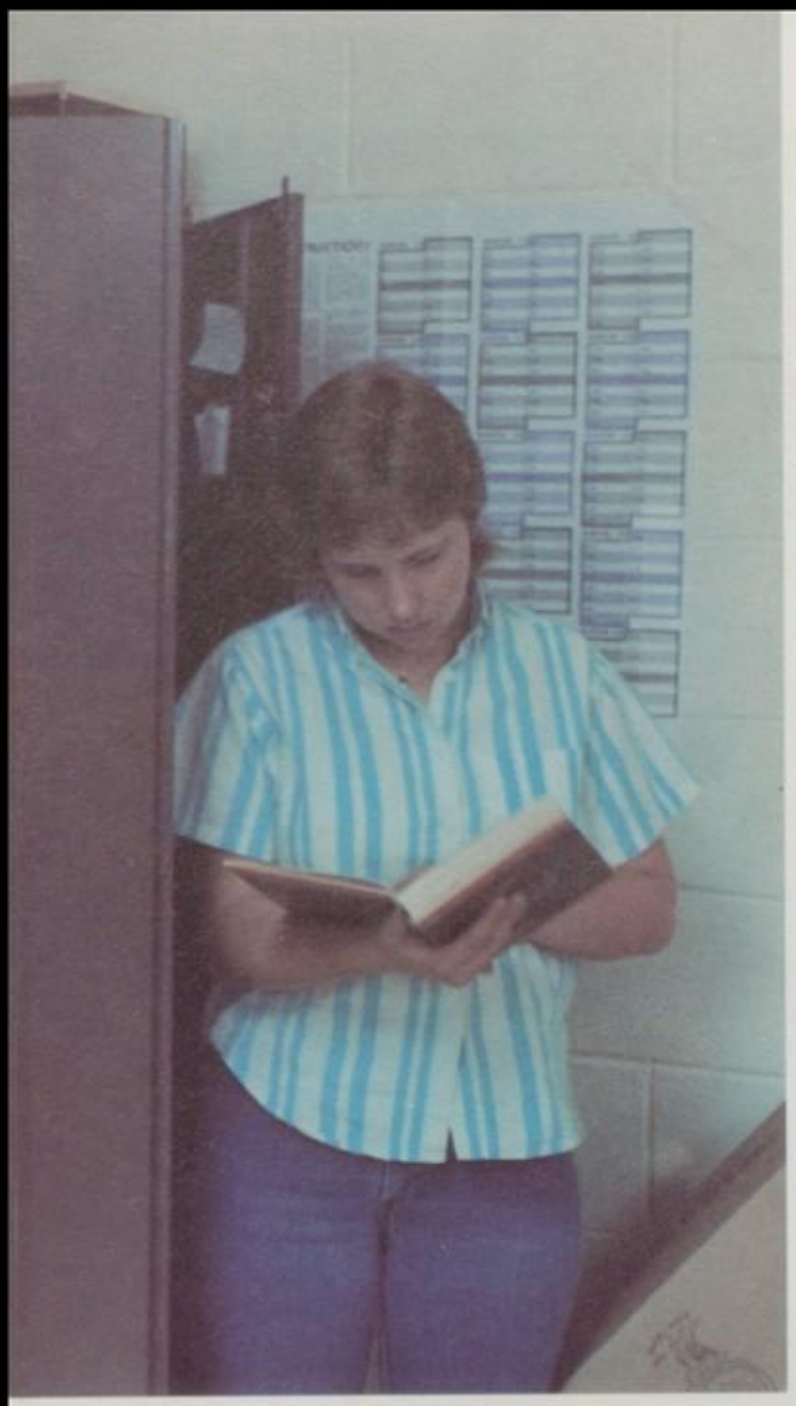
On 50's day even the teachers get into the act. Lea Ann Williamson, Melissa Scoles, and Jackie McKeever join Mrs. Bryant in some high kicks.

Rexann Helms looks a little confused during the Student Council convention.

John Baxter does another of his crazy "Van Halen" imitations while Roger Farley, Allen Richards, Tonnette Washington, and Patrick Baxter watch.

Nancy Hime and Lea Ann Williamson try not to make faces when they try the punch before the Stu-Co convention.

On convention day Angela Corley, Valerie Nolen, and Charlemane Scott greeted the visitors with a smile.

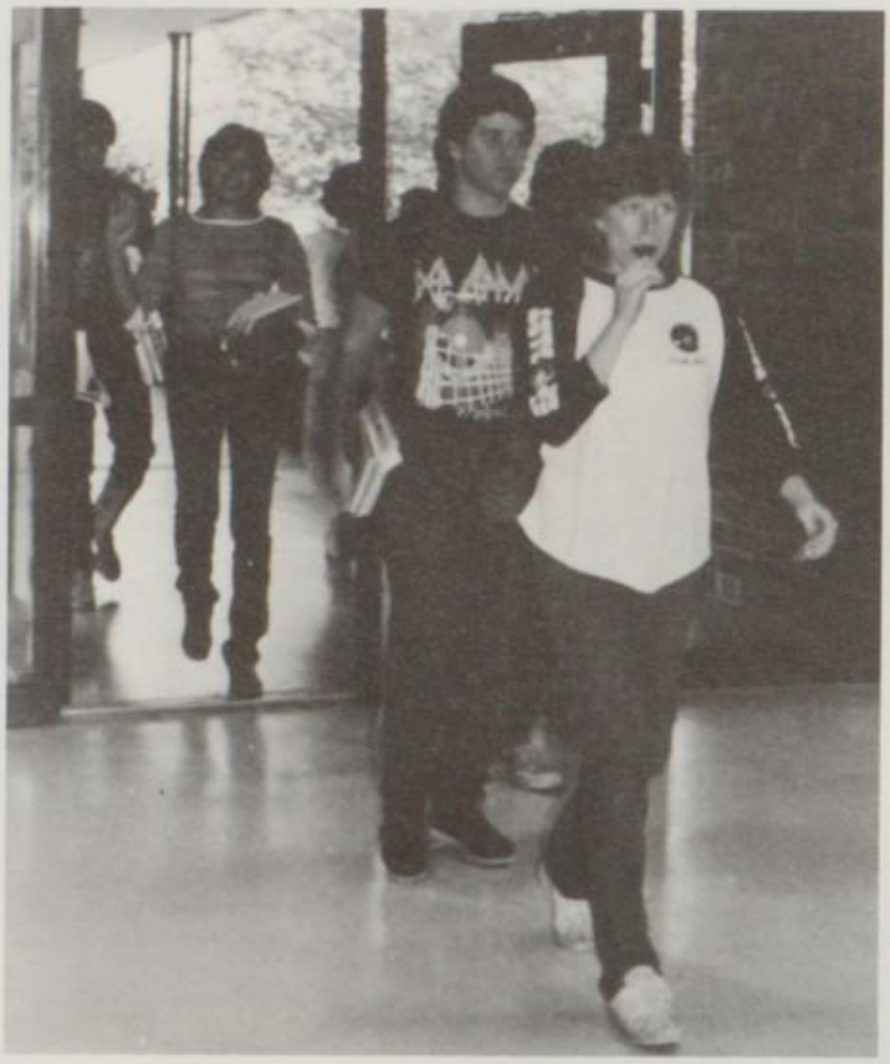


Lori Wiggins checks out an old book before class.

Lisa Moore and Ricky Dixon take a rest in the courtyard during lunch.

Angie Randle, Martha O'Dell, Sherri Griffin, and Cynthia Lankford are all decked out for the Stu-Co Convention.

Randall Anglin, I.H.S. tech crew manager, shows the "true best within."



Terri Hayne, Mo Coffman, Angie McKinny and Greg Wharry all file in as another day at IHS begins.

Matt Bawcum and LeeAnna Bills are interrupted by the Yearbook's roving camera.

Walter Kennybrew seems to have a reason to smile as he poses with a girl on each arm, Toni Myrks on the left and Kim Harris on the right.

Beverly Jackson, LeaAnn Williamson, Jackie McKeever, and Melissa Scoles enjoy the "Fabulous Fifties" for a day.

LeaAnn seems to be having a hard time preparing refreshments for the Yearbook Workshop.

I've heard of being in the dog house, Shane, but this is ridiculous!

Kim Norris manages to ignore the paperwork long enough to offer a smile to the camera while Rexann Helms and Jamie Goolsby continue on.

Rexann Helms and Pam Peters begin decorating the Student Council car for the fair parade.

IHS students show their spirit at one of the football assemblies.

Smile Beverly!

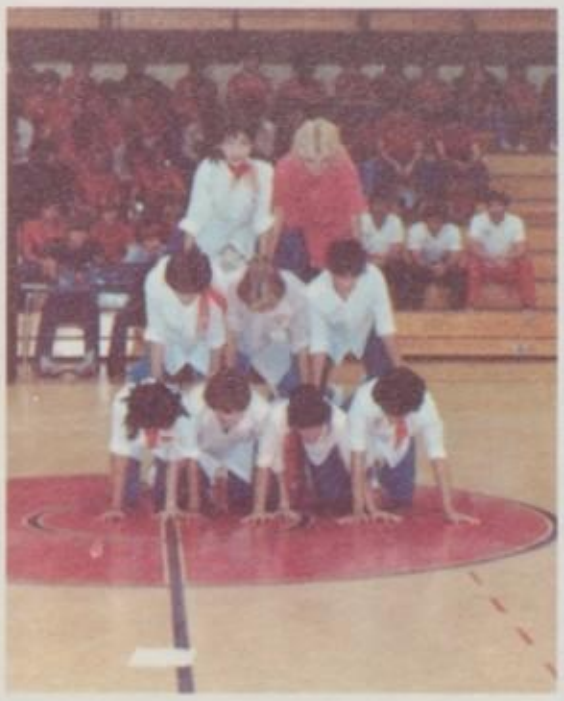
Jia, Sherri, and Monica show different stages of concentration at the yearbook workshop.

Stevie Burks turns his face to the camera but his back is to Guy Buzan, who may have plans for that rope!

Our own Cafeteria Cheering Squad: Marilyn Post, Loretta Hamill, Judy Sweeden, Loretta Bailey, and not pictured is the captain Mo's mom (Judy Coffman).

Mrs. Gilbert agrees that everyone deserves a taste of the good life.

Shane Underwood seems to be in a hurry.



Here, Lisa Watson offers a smile to her Grand Champion and first place winning heifer.

The cheerleaders let it all pile up on fifties day.

Here are the cheerleaders again as they take time to pose after working hard to build their float.

Albert's face shows one of the important factors of a good football team, concentration.

"Come on Scott, be like me."

"Wait a minute, I want to pose for the picture."

Parades are so fun.

Donnie cheats while Mo sleeps. Kimberly and Chris ignore them.

Love is . . .

Not wanting to go out on them, even if you get a chance. — Derek Gilley.

A mutual attraction between two or more people. — Lisa Moore.

Two people who are not interested in anybody else — Monica Coffman.

To hold hands — Bobby Kelly.

Something that makes you happy for a short time and sad for a long one — LeaAnn Williamson.

When you place someone elses wants before your own. — Lori Wiggins.

A very special relationship between two people that act as one — Melissa Scoles.

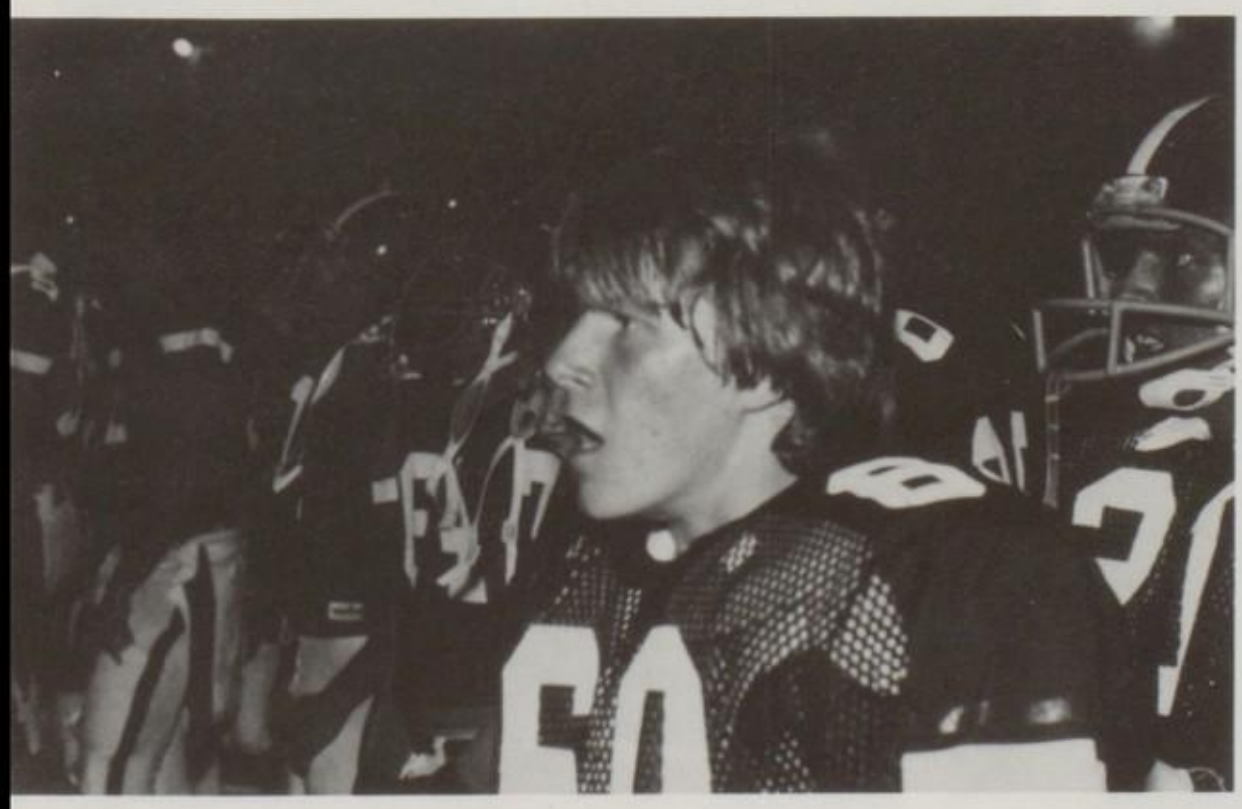
"That hurts my head."

Students clown around on crazy hat day.

"Pay attention, Mark!"

Kent, Beverly, and Michael strike a pose. Go team!

Whatcha lookin' at, Cindy?



Peter Rachel Qualls and Tammy Shaw are shown ladling the punch for the Student Council Convention.

Terry Grayson and Whitney Shoals have the right idea, but Robbie Ealum seems to put it all behind her.

Keri McCary and Kerri Harris seem to have something to smile about as the camera catches them at one of the Warrior football games.

What's this? Star Warriors? Sonya Young, Jackie McKeever, Terri Hayne and Shara Carawan piloted the senior float as it encountered a win in the Homecoming Parade.

Jia Bain and Sherri Griffin discuss the facts of life.

Mrs. Gilbert instructing Melissa Scoles as she puts together a page for the 1984 Tushka.

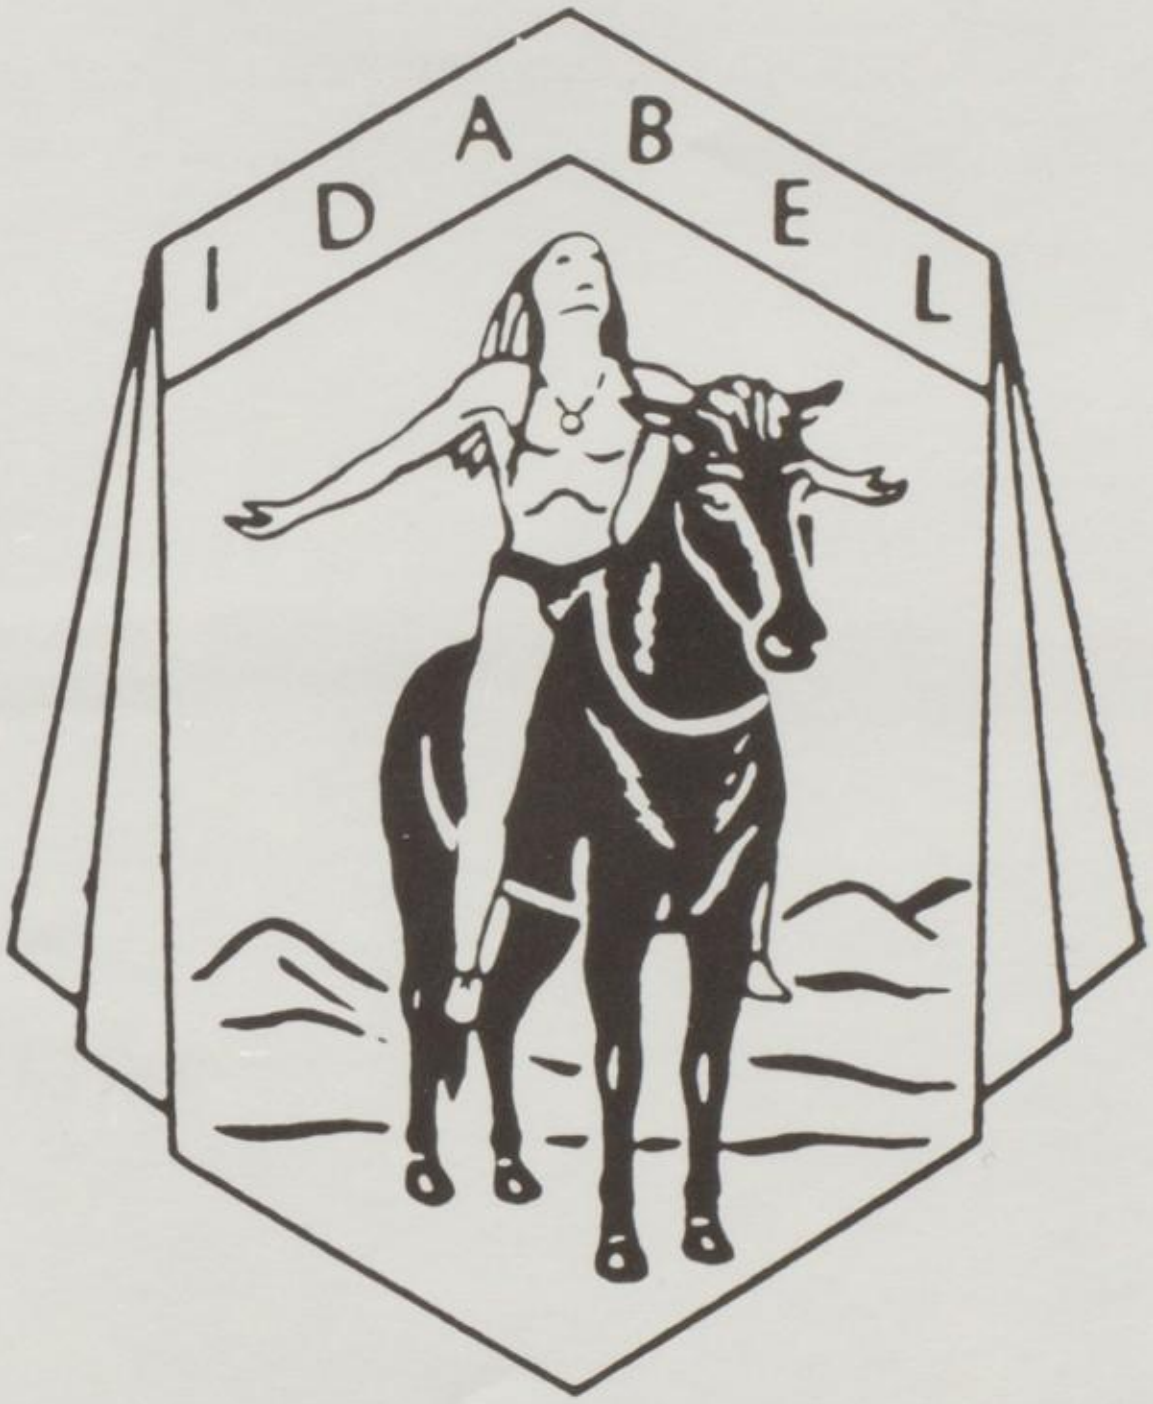
The 1984 Sophomores are our new addition to high school. This group of students is very much involved in their school and its activities. Keep up the good work and good luck in '86!

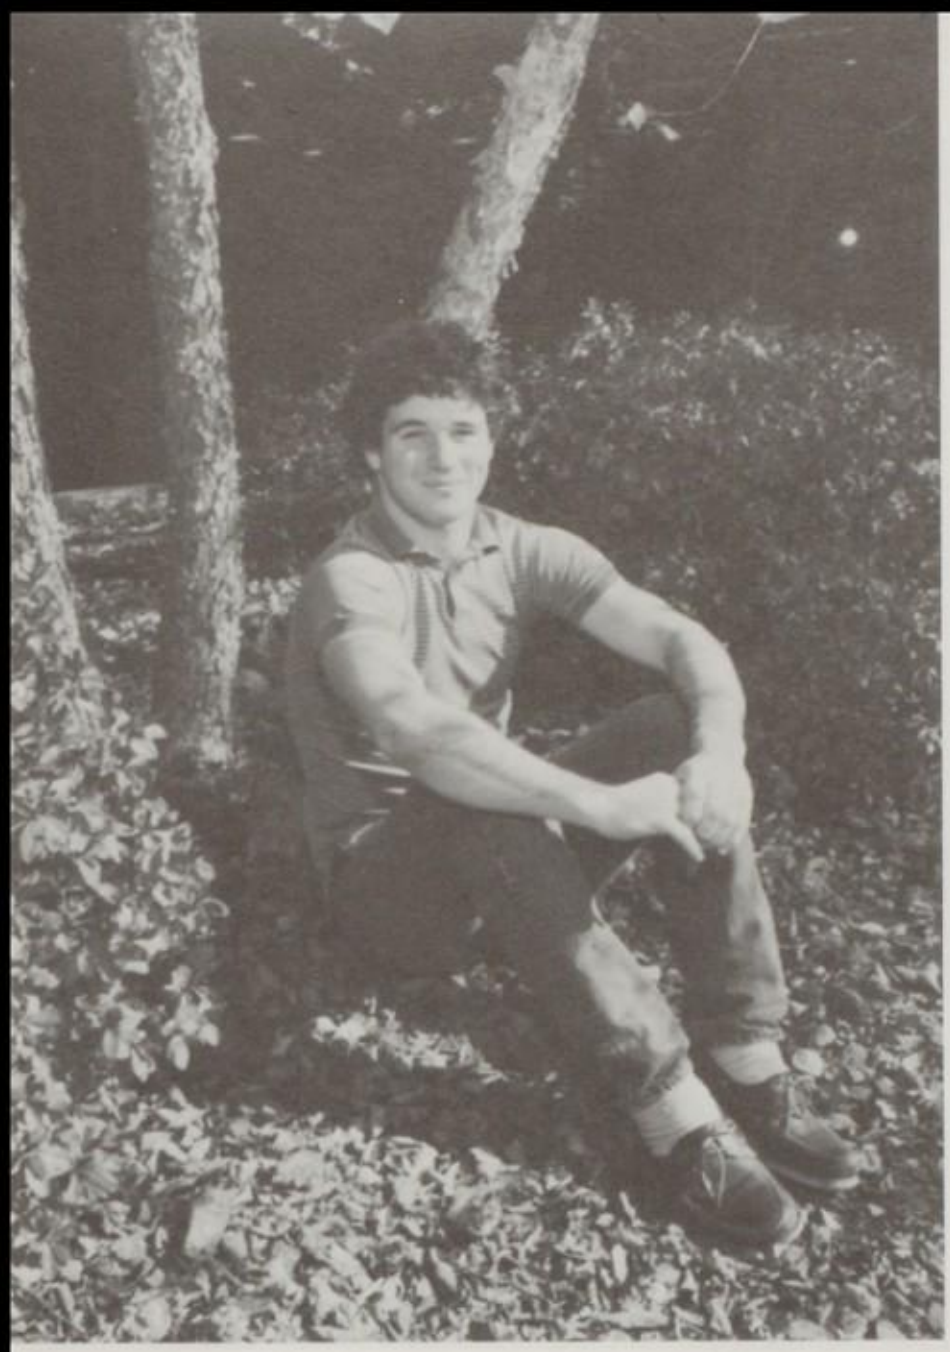
WHO'S WHO



Lea Ann Williamson, junior, is the editor of the Tushka yearbook. She also serves as Assembly Vice President and Junior Class Reporter. Lea Ann is a member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, State Honor Society, Student Council, and Annual Staff. After high school, she is OU bound, with a possible major in a math or chemistry related field.

Beverly Jackson, junior, is the Tushka photographer and photo editor. She has been in Annual Staff for three years. Beverly is also a Student Council representative, a member of Fellowship of Christian Athletes, State Honor Society, and the Leadership class. She plans to attend college and perhaps study chemistry.

Senior Jia Bain is president of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. She is also merchandising editor of the yearbook, a co-drum majorette in the band, and the Pop Time Singers pianist. Jia plans to attend OSU and major in piano performance.



Mo Coffman is the Senior class president. He participates in FCA, "I" Club, Student Council, football, basketball, and track. Next year he will be attending OU or OSU and majoring in language arts, with a P.E. minor.

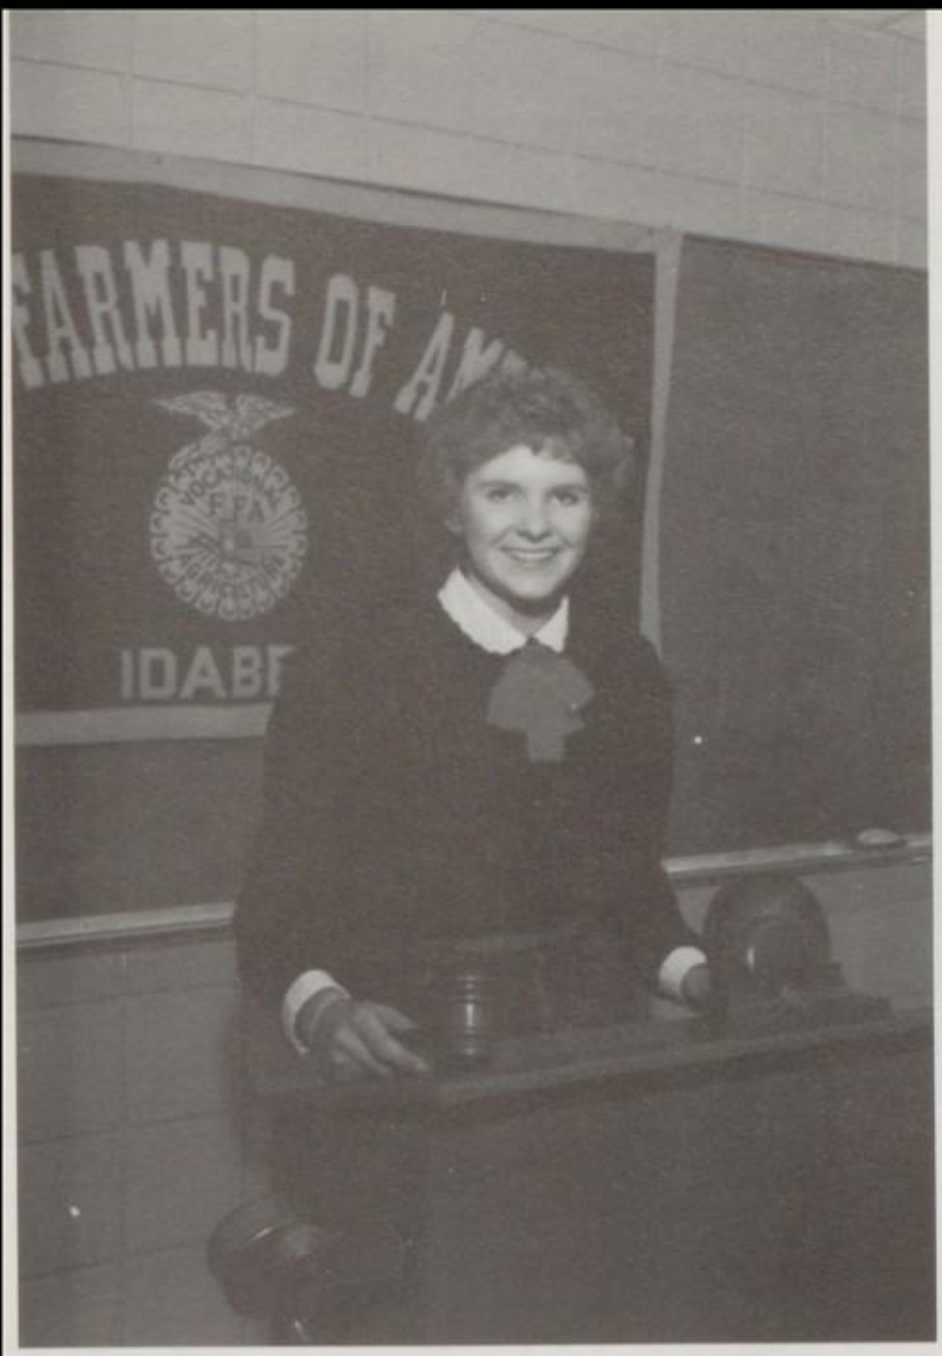
Sophomore class president is Susan Shipp. She is a representative of her class in Student Council. Susan wants to go to the University of Oklahoma and major in psychology.

The junior class is headed by president Rexann Helms. She has a very busy schedule including FCA, Student Council, Pop Time Singers, Girl's Basketball, and State Honor Society. Her future plans include attending college and studying for law school.

Student Council president is Vanessa Lowe, junior. She is a member of Student Council, FCA, Drama, and Leadership. Attending college and studying fashion merchandising and music will be her next step after high school.

Kimberly Talbot is the President of Assembly. As a senior, she takes part in Student Council. Kimberly plans to pursue the career that she prepares for in college.

Kim Harris, senior, serves as president of the Future Homemakers of America. She is a three-year member of Track and FHA. College at ECU is a definite part of her future.



Although it is not a traditional female position, Shonda Johnson, senior, is president of the Future Farmers of America. She spends her time raising and showing sheep and pigs. Shonda enjoys rodeoing and is in the 4-H Horse Club and Horse Judging Team.

Steve Tucker is the president of the Idabel branch of the Vocational Industrial Clubs of America. He is a Senior.

Tammy McKeever, senior, is president of the Future Business Leaders of America. She has been a loyal member of this organization for three years.

Newspaper Editors

John Baxter, junior, is copy editor of the IHS Times. He is also a member of Fellowship of Christian Athletes, and Pop Time Singers. John plans to go to California and look into getting into a "heavy metal" band.

Terri Gahlinger, senior, is editor-in-chief of the IHS Times. She is also a member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and the Leadership Class. Terri's hopes are to someday have her own dress shop.

Mike Winters, senior, is sports editor of the IHS Times. Mike enjoys playing golf and football as well as being a member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. Mike hopes to someday become a Pro Football Player.

Through Hot & Cold

The heat of August and the thrill of victory were no strangers to the 1984 Warrior Football Team. Finishing with a 7-4 record and a district championship, the Warriors maintained their reputation as a football team to be reckoned with, despite the unseasonably hot days that opened the season and the unusually cold days that closed it.

"I" Club

The "I" Club is made up of the athletes of Idabel High School. One of the more notable acts of this auspicious group is the infamous yearly initiations of the new members. The club will accept a newcomer to its ranks only after he has been put through a vigorous and humiliating test which includes wearing a dress, eating baby food, and especially, doing whatever an "I" club member tells him to do.

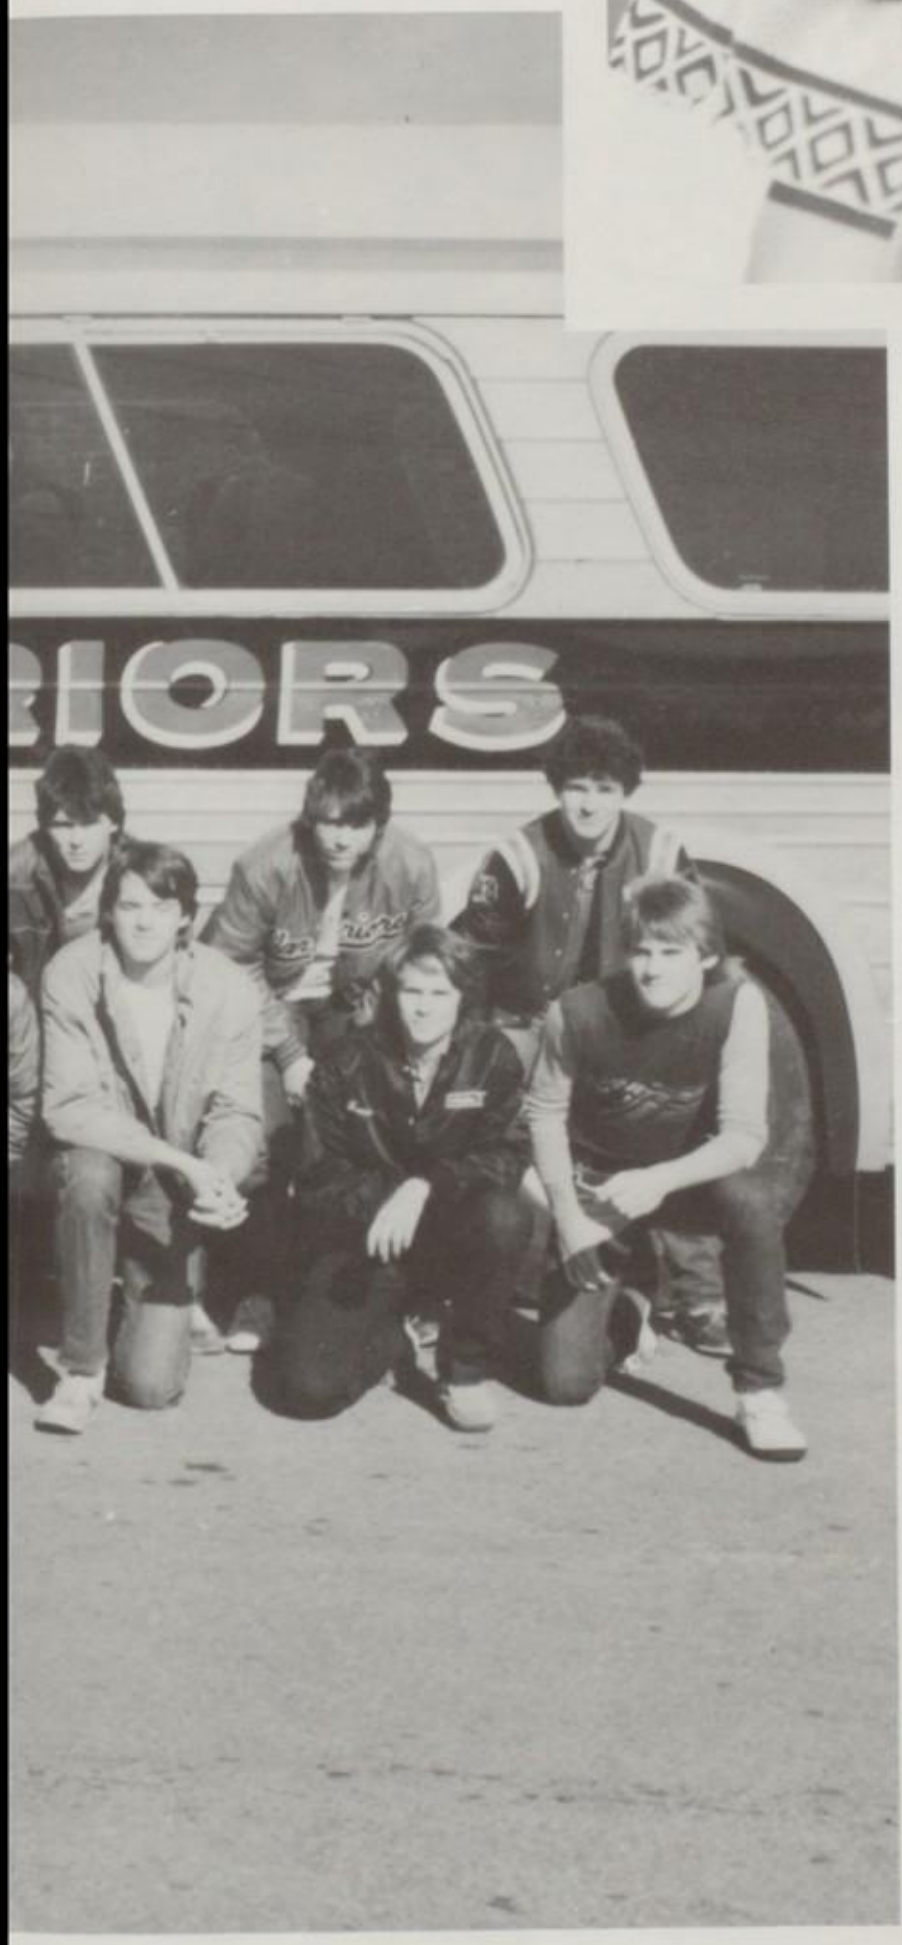
"I" Club in Action



Sandy Scott and Valerie Nolen wave to the crowd. They escorted two senior players.

Lisa Moore was a Homecoming attendant. Beautiful!

John Bryan was proud to walk Alice Hudson down the field in her red formal. Here she is "sitting pretty" before the game.

Beverly Jackson seems to be having a little problem getting situated before the game. But isn't she lovely!

Ava Sullivan doesn't look happy here. Maybe she was worried that her escort, Hershel Parish, would get hurt during the game.

Seniors

The junior class float predicted an enormous victory for the Warriors. The meaning of the "85?" Graduates of '85!

Jamie Goolsby and Beverly Jackson were the attendants of Mike Winters and Derek Gilley. They seem to have enjoyed riding in the parade.

Lauquinette Lewis flashes a smile as she glides along the parade route.

Candidates for Homecoming Queen were Angie Randle, Cindy Gillham, and Karen Johnson. Their escorts were Dudley Gilbert, Darin Shupert, and Dewayne Hunter. Angie was crowned queen during pre-game ceremonies. She watched her team as they went on to win 50 to 0 over Coalgate. Homecoming Queen is a special honor because she is chosen by the popular vote of the senior football players. Their representative for this year is a girl worthy of this outstanding team. Congratulations Angie!

Homecoming was an important time for the Cheerleaders. They organized and perfected the coronation. Getting ready for the parade was a big part of it and they did very well, winning a prize for "Best Decorated Vehicle."

Each class spent hours of hard work not to mention money, on their floats.

Mike Kirby, Rexann Helms, Robert Harkey, and Alan Marston are hard at work stuffing the chicken wire.

Lea Ann Williamson and Todd Gilbert cruised along the parade route in a borrowed (and expensive) car.

Coach Willis crowns Angie Randle Homecoming queen as Dudley Gilbert watches.

Jackie McKeever and Shara Carawan dressed as Star Wars characters for the Senior float. In the background are Michelle Willeby and Mrs. Miller.

Junior sponsors Mr. Schlesselman and Mrs. O'Dell confer with class president Rexann Helms over their float design.

Girls Next Door

Girls Next Door is a girls' ensemble made up of sophomore girls. This is good experience for the girls who may wish to continue singing while in high school. This group is also directed by Darrell Buzan and has school and community performances.

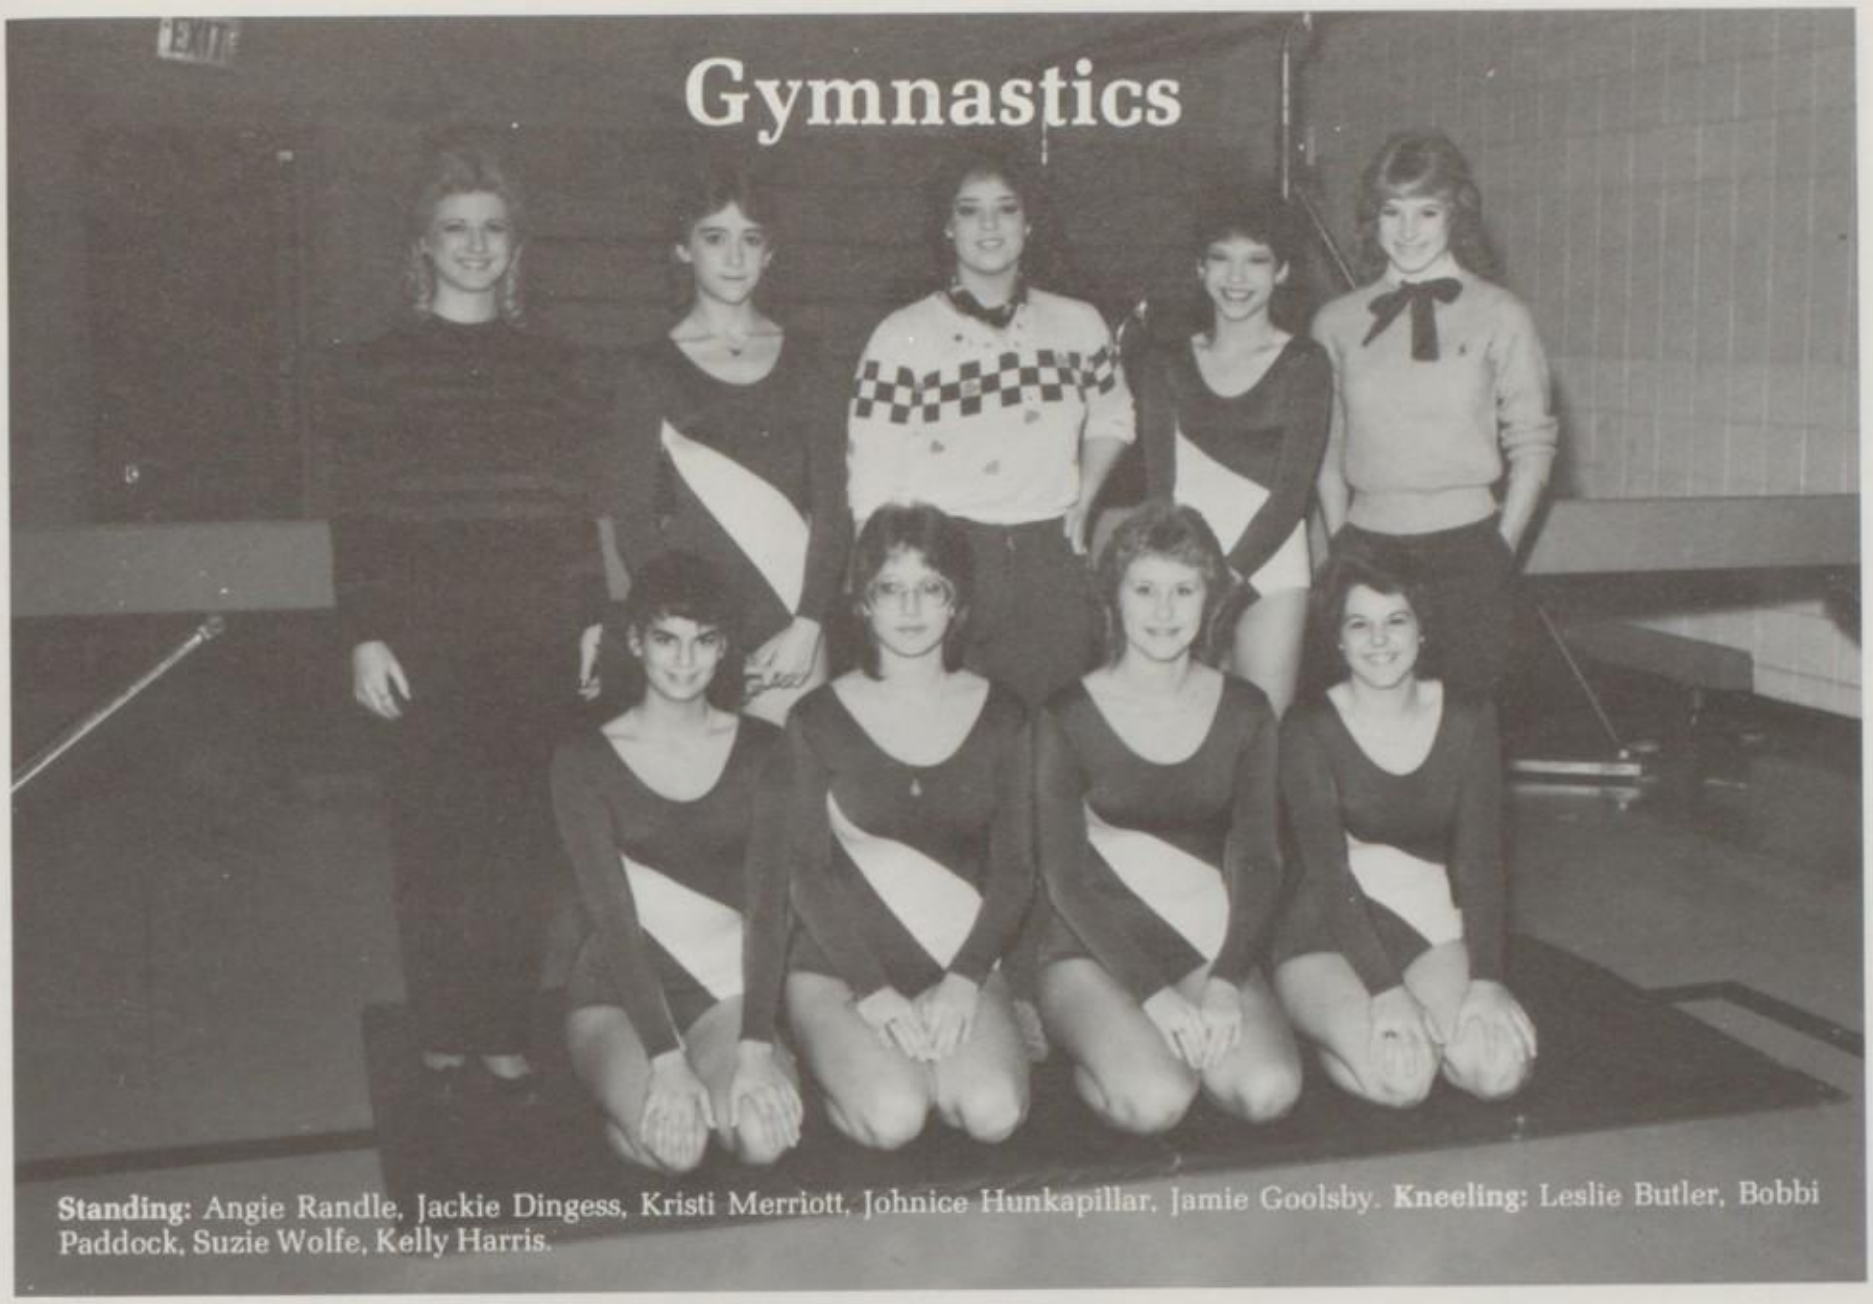
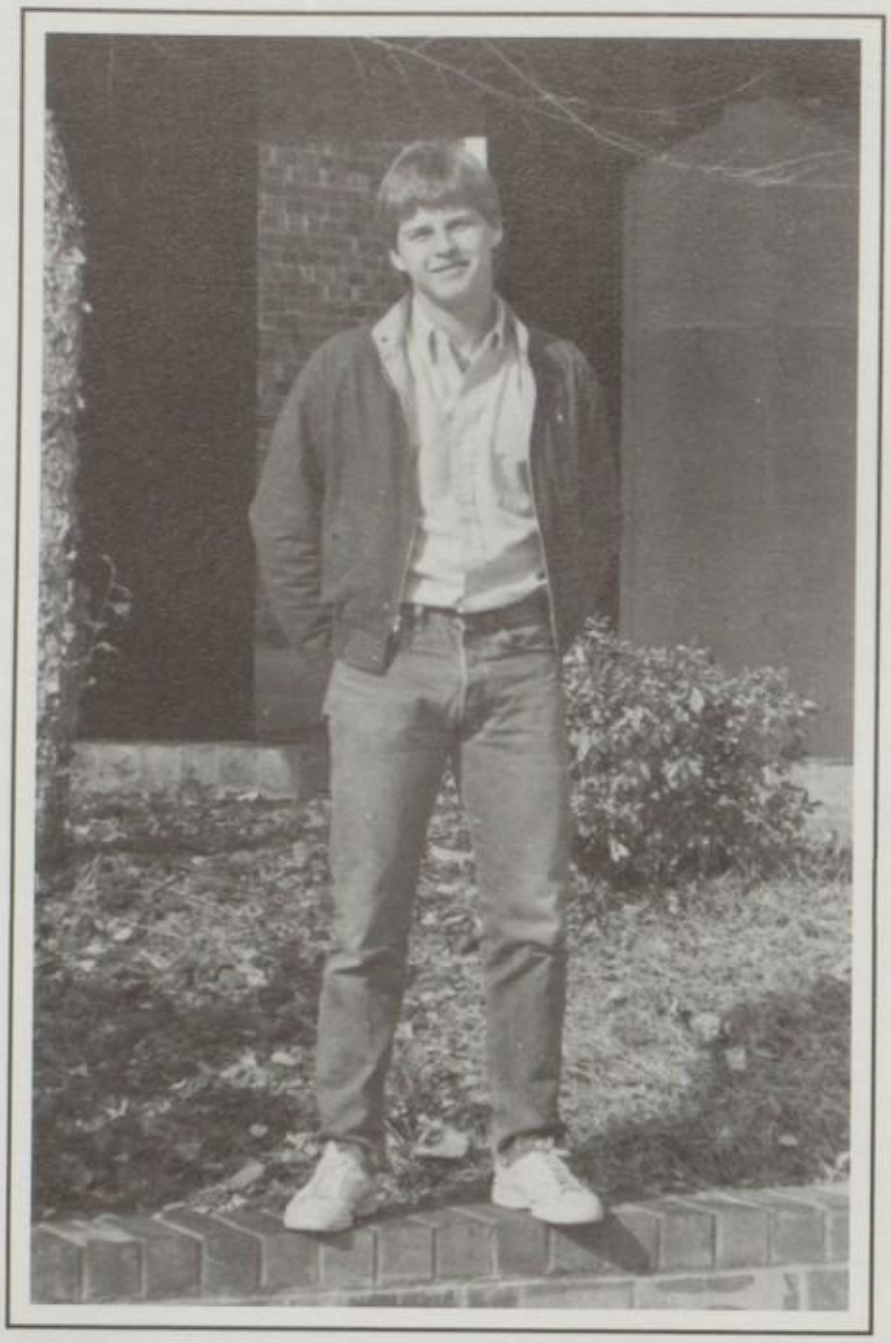
Gymnastics



Standing: Angie Randle, Jackie Dingess, Kristi Merriott, Johnice Hunkapillar, Jamie Goolsby. Kneeling: Leslie Butler, Bobbi Paddock, Suzie Wolfe, Kelly Harris.

Combining athletic ability and grace, the gymnastics class can be found doing strenuous things to the body muscles every day. Trampolines, balance beams and many different mats are the stages for these performers. The instructor is Frances King.

Mrs. King also directs the bowling classes. These students can be found one hour out of each day at the bowling alley taking out their frustrations on ten awaiting pins at the end of the alley.



Golf

The 1984 Idabel High School Golf Team consists of Scott Stewart, Mark Waters, Donnie Hayne, Mark Monroe, Dudley Gilbert, and Matt Bawcum as team captain.

Coach Bob Auten said that 4 out of 5 starters returned from a state qualifying team, they are Matt Bawcum, Jamie Stevenson, Dudley Gilbert, and Mark Monroe. "We're expecting a real good golf team."

Mighty Warriors

The boys' team has several veteran players from last year's team. Because many of them have experience, even in the state playoffs, the mighty Warrior basketball team will prove to be tough to beat. Blessed with quickness and talent, the boys will probably be looking at a chance for state champs.

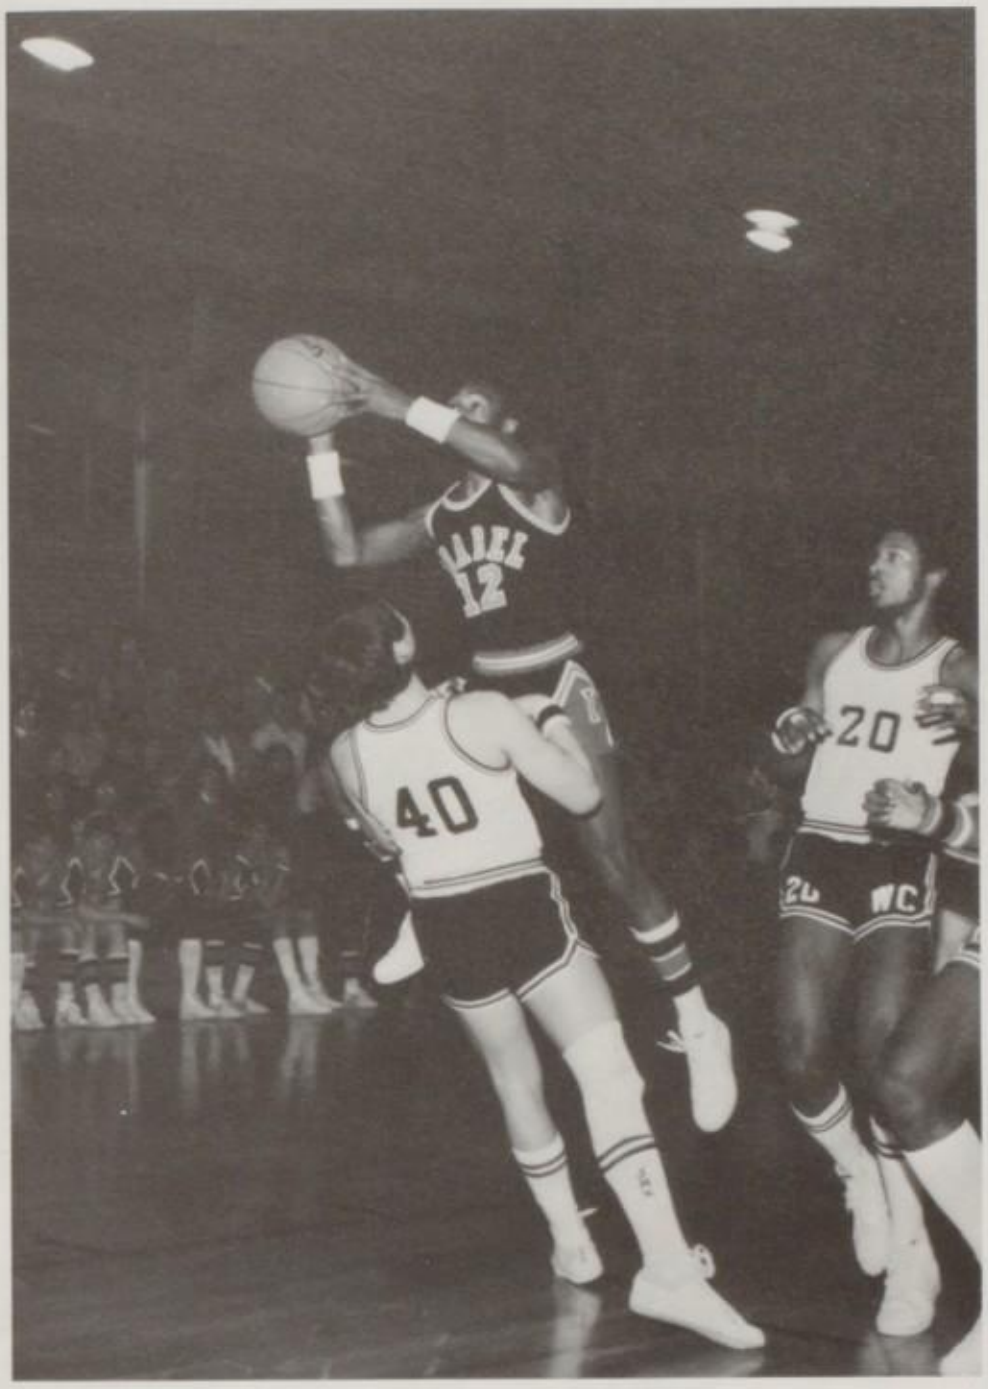
Captains: James Johnson, Greg Wharry, Albert Perry, Eric Battiest

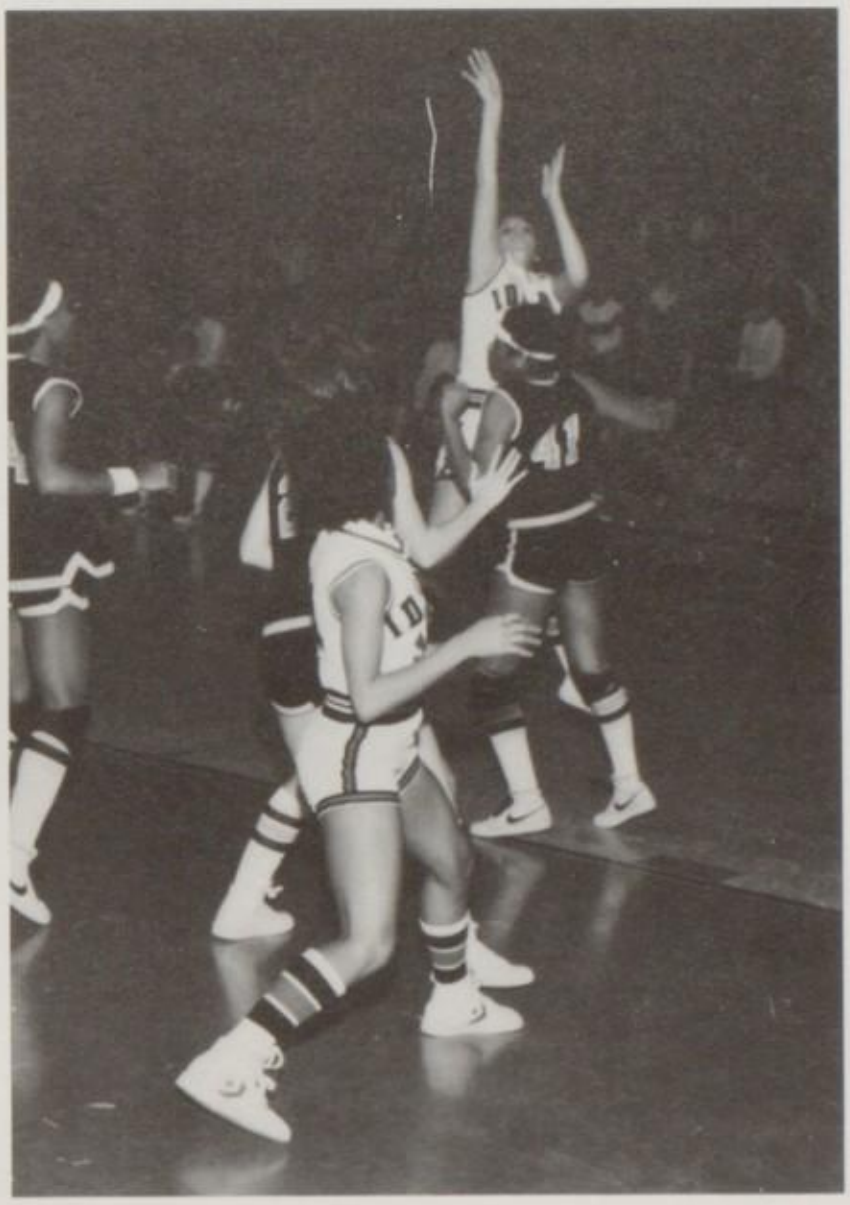
Girls' Basketball

Seated: Darlene Williams, Kim McNeal, Debby Williams, Rhonda Crank, Pam Golston, Valerie Whitaker, Tracie Adams, Sherri Griffin, Terri Adams. Standing: Asst. Coach Gary Smallwood, Manager — Juree Tidwell, Tracy McKee, Kristy Lowrance, Lanette Wilson, Paula Sawyer, Rexann Helms, Kris Smalling, Vicki McHerron, Head Coach Burl Plunkett.

Potential is the key word about this year's girls' basketball team. Most of the players have been competing in high school ball since ninth grade. Only one player from last year's squad was lost and there are plenty of new ones who will see action before the season ends. This year, the girls' team will prove themselves to be talented and fierce competitors.

Captains: Debby Williams, Tracy McKee, Darlene Williams





All Oklahoma stood up and took notice when the Mighty Idy rolled into its 1983-84 basketball season.

Throughout the season they remained a top-notch basketball squad.

Players and fans alike look forward to seeing Idabel High School's own maidens of mirth, the cheerleaders. They can be found enthusiastically building spirit everywhere and in every kind of weather. During the course of the year, they cheer for the basketball boys in various places and root for the football boys in the bitterly cold wind. Without their big smiles and loud cheers, football, basketball, and certainly pep assemblies would be boring indeed.

Miss IHS

On the afternoon of December 10, twenty-five nervous girls converged on Mrs. O'Dell's and Mrs. McPeak's rooms to prepare for the final day of the eleventh annual Miss Idabel High Pageant. After a nerve-racking time of displaying their most lady-like qualities, the contestants filed to the library where they once again met with the two men and three ladies who served as judges. The nail-biting, the endless practice, and the hopeful prayers of the last two months were slowly coming to a close. After personal interviews, contestants headed home to rest before returning at six o'clock to get the pageant underway. Host Todd Gilbert and Hostess LeaAnn Williamson welcomed the audience as the curtain went up to a Charleston rhythm. Decked out in self-designed flapper costumes, the contestants opened the "Roaring Twenties Rendezvous."

Miss Congeniality — Roxann Helms, 1st runnerup and Miss Talent — Jia Bain, Miss THS — Martha O'Dell, 2nd runnerup — Jamie Goolsby.

The production of this pageant would not have been possible without several unrecognized helpers. When asked, Mrs. Miller went right to work on designing the "twenties" set for the stage. She was assisted by Valerie Williams, Shara Carawan, Randall Anglin, Jackie McKeever, Michael Willeby, and Michelle Willeby. Mr. Buzan coordinated the music, lights, and sound. He was assisted by the Tech Crew personnel, Randall Anglin, Michael Willeby, and James Wilcox, who also served as stagehands. Mrs. Lee and the FHA girls prepared and served refreshments at the tea. The help provided by Mr. Langley, Mr. Miller, and the faculty cannot be left out. Bob Smith and Lea Ann Williamson worked together to write the script. Sherri Griffin, Beverly Jackson, and Lea Ann Williamson worked wherever and whenever needed. Last but not least, sponsors Rebecca Gilbert and Darla Bryant planned, organized, and perfected the whole affair.

. . . And Miss IHS 1984 Is . . . Martha O'Dell

Hard work and concentration paid off for this lovely senior when she was crowned Miss IHS. Her escort was Kent O'Rear, a fellow senior. For her talent, Martha performed a modern dance to "We Dance so Close to the Fire."

On her big night Martha sparkled in an emerald green formal. Her brilliant smile and expressive eyes obviously caught the judges attention as she danced her way to the title.

As our school year and our yearbook come to a close, we look back on a year filled with joy, happiness and good times. There were some dark moments, but they helped us to grow and become better people. Students at Idabel High School have a long tradition of excelling in the academic field and on the sports field. Never accepting defeat, always trying to improve, Warriors strive to stay "At Our Best."
